

Costa Cruises With the Best of Italian and International Football

September 8, 2015

Thanks to an agreement with Sky Italia, Costa will provide its guests cruising in Europe and in Dubai with the best of Serie A Tim and Serie B ConTe.it football, of the UEFA Europa League and of the main European football championships, in addition to Formula 1, MotoGP and the Men's EuroBasket 2015 Championship.

Genoa, 8 September 2015 – From North Europe to the Mediterranean and from the Canary Islands to Dubai guests can enjoy the best of Italian and international football on board ships of the Costa Cruises fleet.

The Serie A Tim and Serie B ConTe.it football championships have just begun and fans of Italian teams have already enjoyed all the first thrills and goals even during their cruise vacation.

Thanks to an agreement with Sky Italia, Costa Cruises will provide guests cruising on its ships in Europe and in Dubai/Emirates with live broadcasts of the best of Serie A Tim and Serie B ConTe.it, of the UEFA Europa League and of the Fox Sports European football championships, in addition to Formula 1, Moto GP and the Men's EuroBasket 2015 Championship. Games and matches can be seen on televisions in cabins or in some public areas of ships equipped with screens.

This initiative confirms that the Costa Cruises fleet, flying the Italian flag, is the ambassador of Italy's finest around the world: together with regional menus, the major brands of Italian excellence, and our country's unique style and entertainment, guests on board now can also enjoy the most popular Italian football championships, the exploits of Italian racing drivers and teams as well as the best of international football.
