

Booking start for new Norway voyages in December and Canary Islands cruises with AIDAnova

October 6, 2021

The Canary Islands are among the classics for those who want to soak up the sun even in winter. As of now, the new AIDAnova voyages leading to the islands of eternal spring are available for booking. From January to April 2022, AIDAnova will call at some of the most beautiful islands of the Spanish archipelago with Gran Canaria, Tenerife, Fuerteventura and Lanzarote. The journeys are bookable to the AIDA VARIO price starting from 599 euro per person, there is the arrival and departure package starting from 490 euro per person.

Before sailing to the Canary Islands, AIDAnova will come to Hamburg. On December 14, 2021, the ship with the kissing lips will moor in the Hanseatic city for the first time. For a short time-out in Advent, AIDA Cruises has added two new short cruises. From 14 to 19 December 2021 AIDAnova will sail to Kristiansand and Oslo. On the voyage from December 19 to 22, 2021, Kristiansand will be called at.

If you want to escape the Christmas and New Year's Eve stress at home, you're in exactly the right place on AIDAnova's festive voyages, which are offered in different voyage lengths. For the full program, take the voyage from December 22, 2021, to January 8, 2022, from Hamburg to Gran Canaria. Guests will spend Christmas Eve in Rotterdam and New Year's eve in Funchal/Madeira. One of the world's most spectacular fireworks displays is held there every year. The holiday voyages can also be booked in a shorter version from or to Lisbon.

To ensure that all guests can enjoy a relaxed vacation not only on board but also ashore, AIDA Cruises has developed coordinated protocols with the relevant authorities. The far-reaching health concept is implemented on all voyages, including a COVID-19 test before departure for all guests and the AHA rules that apply on board. In addition, for AIDAnova voyages, full vaccination coverage is a requirement for all guests to travel. For children under 12, a negative COVID-19 test is sufficient.

In many destinations, AIDAnova guests will again have the option of going ashore individually, depending on the current local conditions and the requirements of the local authorities. More information on the ports of call will soon be available at www.aida.de/urlaubskompass. In addition, AIDA Cruises offers an extensive organized excursion program in all ports.

On board AIDAnova, guests can expect, among other things, 17 restaurants and 23 bars, a double water slide and climbing garden, the Beach Club, the Theatrium with its 360° stage, the TV studio and the spacious Body & Soul Organic Spa. AIDAnova is powered by low-emission liquefied natural gas (LNG).
