

It's the Most Wonderful Time of Year to Connect with Family and Celebrate the Holidays at Sea

November 22, 2021

Princess Cruises Offers a Real Holiday Vacation for Vaccinated Families to the Caribbean, Mexican Riviera, California Coast & Panama Canal

SANTA CLARITA, Calif., Nov. 22, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- With the holiday season quickly approaching, vaccines available for kids ages five and older, and travel back on the rise, Princess Cruises offers the ultimate family getaway to enjoy the winter break, ring in the New Year or simply enjoy the safe return of family cruising for vaccinated guests.

From evergreens adorning the decks to sparkling Christmas trees in the Piazzas, guests are treated to a host of holiday festivities including:

- Holiday Wishes variety show
- Menorah Lighting
- Ugly Holiday Sweater Competition
- Lighting of the lights ceremony
- Family gingerbread house making and snowman making competition
- Holiday family movie night
- Holiday crafts, including card making
- 'Twas the Night Before Christmas reading

There's even special holiday programming on stateroom TVs, including a fireplace channel. Guests sailing over New Year's will ring in 2022 with a festive countdown party and a Champagne toast!

"This holiday season, take a real vacation with Princess Cruises where everything is done for you from cooking and cleaning to activities and entertainment, allowing for more time to connect and create last memories with loved ones," said Shelley Wise, vice president integrated marketing.

With 24 cruises onboard eight ships, ranging in length from five to 14 days, departing over Hanukkah, Christmas and New Year's for fully-vaccinated cruisers, Princess sails MedallionClass ships to the tropical Caribbean, vibrant Mexican Riviera, scenic California Coast and the engineering marvel of the Panama Canal.
