

Cunard sees strongest bookings in decade with Summer 2023 itineraries

February 7, 2022

The luxury travel brand saw a phenomenal response in the first two days of trading

Cunard's Summer 2023 itineraries, which unveiled over 150 new, international voyages, has seen a record-breaking first two days of trading, with demand especially strong for Grills Suites.

Cunard Vice President of Sales and Marketing, Angus Struthers said, "We are delighted by the overwhelming response to Summer 2023 itineraries going on sale, which has even surpassed Cunard's record-breaking days in 2021 when Queen Elizabeth's summer at sea sailings went on sale.

"Cunard's two strongest booking periods in more than a decade have happened in the past 12 months and is testament to the global appeal of a holiday with Cunard – signifying guests' desire to step back on board and travel in style and luxury."

Cunard's Summer 2023 schedule includes 150 voyages calling at 120 unique ports in 35 countries, with 23 late evening departures and 15 overnight stays with voyages between two nights and 37 nights in duration.
