

AIDamar greets Elphi at the start of its world cruise

October 27, 2022

AIDamar set off from Hamburg on her first cruise around the world last night at 8:00 p.m. on the dot. With a lap of honour and a spectacular turning manoeuvre in front of Hamburg's Elbphilharmonie, Captain Felix Rothe gave the guests and crew on board a very special start to the 117-day round-the-world voyage. Pure emotions and goose bumps for all globetrotters who are full of anticipation for their XXL adventure.

Guests can look forward to dream destinations such as Rio de Janeiro (Brazil), Buenos Aires (Argentina), Ushuaia and Chile. From here, the journey continues westwards via Tahiti, Bora Bora, Tonga, Fiji (Christmas), Vanuatu, New Caledonia and Australia to Mauritius. Guests welcome the New Year against the magical backdrop of Sydney. Via South Africa, Namibia, Tenerife, Madeira, they return to Hamburg via Lisbon, where the journey ends on 20 February 2023.

All those who are now gripped by wanderlust and who do not want to miss the next chance to take an AIDA World Cruise can book the trip of a lifetime from today at 10:00 a.m.: 117 days, 41 ports, 17 countries, four continents, two equator crossings and countless unique AIDA moments - that is the AIDA Selection World Cruise 2024/2025 with AIDAsol from 23. The World Cruise 2024/2025 can be booked from as little as 14,445 euros per person at the AIDA PREMIUM price for double occupancy (inside cabin IB), including a 3,000 euro Early Bird Plus discount for bookings made by 30 April 2024. The contingent is limited.

Rostock, October 27, 2022