

SEABOURN ANNOUNCES FOUR SEGMENTS FOR 2026 WORLD CRUISE ON SALE NOW

March 25, 2024

SEATTLE, March 25, 2024 – Seabourn, the leader in ultra-luxury cruises and expedition travel, has announced nine individual segments are now open for sale for the 2026 World Cruise – Ring of Fire: Hidden Gems aboard Seabourn Sojourn. Ranging from 10 to 48 days, these shorter segments are ideal for guests who are not able to sail on the entire 129-day World Cruise to still experience a part of this exciting voyage. Full itinerary details are available on Seabourn's website.

“Our 2026 World Cruise aboard Seabourn Sojourn will be a remarkable voyage visiting destinations throughout an impressive portion of the Pacific. This region will feature extraordinary cultural and culinary experiences as well as scenic natural wonders for guests to create memorable Seabourn Moments,” said Natalya Leahy, president of Seabourn. “For guests who are looking to experience parts of this amazing adventure, we’re pleased to offer these shorter segments as an option for them to get a taste of our World Cruise and visit some of their top destinations.”

The new 2026 World Cruise segments include:

Pearls of the South Pacific: Los Angeles to Sydney (Duration: 49 days) – Island-hop in ultra-luxury style visiting six unique island groups including the Hawaiian Islands, Tahiti & French Polynesia, Fiji, New Caledonia, Vanuatu, and New Zealand – with no less than eight ports of call at the last. Highlights include extended stays in the tropical paradises of Honolulu, Bora Bora, and Tahiti, as well as an overnight in Auckland, New Zealand, to rest up before exploring the untouched and renowned natural beauty of Fiordland National Park. Featured shore excursions include a Catamaran Lagoon Cruise with Shark Ray Feeding & Beach BBQ in Bora Bora; a Taste of Vanilla & Taha'a Motu Picnic in Papeete, Tahiti; a Mystery Island Drift Snorkel in Vanuatu; a Unique Kiwi Experience in Wellington, New Zealand; a Kaikoura Whale Watch Ocean Safari via helicopter in Kaikoura, New Zealand; and many more.

Coral Coast: Circumnavigation & Sapphire Seas: Sydney to Hong Kong (Duration: 39 days) – Rugged coastal beauty will be the focus of a carefully crafted circumnavigation of Australia, with 14 distinct ports, overnight stays in Sydney and Melbourne, and extended stays in Hobart and Broome. The itinerary includes Seabourn's first-ever call to Robe amid the pristine Limestone Coast of South Australia, as well as cruising the Kimberley Coast, teeming with breathtaking wilderness and marine life. Lombok and Bali in Indonesia, and Puerto Princesa in the Philippines are also on the itinerary. Featured shore excursions include Discover the Blue Mountains in Sydney; Wildlife and Wineries in Melbourne; Sunset Camel Rides at Cable Beach in Broome; Litchfield National Park: Termite Mounds & Falls in Darwin; Royal Temple, Monkey Forest & Tanah Lot Pagoda in Benoa, Bali; Subterranean River National Park in Puerto Princesa; and many more.

Isle of Jade and Beyond: Hong Kong to Tokyo \(Duration: 23 days\) – From the bustling streets of Hong Kong, Tokyo, and Busan, South Korea to the tranquil beauty of hidden ports such as Ishigaki, Miyako, and Aomori in Japan, every destination will tell a tale inspired by local culture, cuisine, and crafts. A mesmerizing circumnavigation of Japan will cruise scenically in the historic Japan Inland Sea and Kanmon Strait. Featured shore excursions include Evening Harbor Cruise in Hong Kong; Taroka Gorge & Kang-Ten Temple in Hualien, Taiwan; Explore Gjang Temple and Forest in Busan; Sanriku Coastline by Train & Kitayamazaki Cliffs in Miyako, Japan; and more.

Golden Gardens & Glaciers: Tokyo to Vancouver \(Duration: 22 days\) – The home stretch of the World Cruise begins amid the gleaming energy of Golden Week in Japan and proceeds with a transpacific voyage across sparkling blue ocean waters to Alaska as the season begins to change to summer. Cruise lesser-sailed waterways to smaller ports in the Last Frontier, where life will be revealed through expanding moments against a backdrop of rugged volcanic terrain, indigenous history, and seaside gems that shine. Featured shore excursions include Local Sake Brewery & Hitachi Seaside Park in Hitachinaka, Japan; Lake Mashu and Onsen in Kushiro, Japan; and more.

Seabourn Sojourn is set to depart for the 2026 World Cruise from Los Angeles on January 6, 2026. The ship will wind its way through the lush volcanic islands and atolls of the South Pacific, around the wild coasts of Australia, and through the beguiling islands of Japan in time for spring flower season. It will then sail to Alaska, exploring Glacier Bay National Park and before finishing in Vancouver on May 15.

The 129-day 2026 World Cruise will weave together 63 exquisite destinations in 14 countries over 28,000 nautical miles, with seven overnights, seven extended stays, and two crossings of the International Date Line through the Ring of Fire.
