"These sailings build on our strong deployment plan from the Cruise Capital of the World for 2026/27," said Fred Stein, vice president of itinerary planning for Carnival. "Year-round from PortMiami, our guests have an incredibly diverse range of itineraries to choose from as they plan their next fun and memorable cruise vacation."

Carnival Magic will sail a variety of itineraries from PortMiami and will continue year-round service from the port with both six- and eight-day cruise options. Many of the ship's itineraries will visit Celebration Key, which will be the premier exclusive cruise destination on the island of Grand Bahama. Six-day Eastern Caribbean cruises depart on Sundays and include visits to ports like Amber Cove, Grand Turk and Celebration Key or Half Moon Cay, a private destination set for expansion. The highly rated destination known for relaxing, beautiful beaches and crystal-clear waters will be enhanced to include an expanded beach, dining and beverage experiences along with a pier that will allow Carnival ships to dock. Six-day Western Caribbean cruises feature stops in Montego Bay and Grand Cayman, as well as Celebration Key. For those seeking more time to soak up the sun, eight-day Southern Caribbean itineraries explore Aruba, Bonaire and Curaçao, while eight-day Eastern Caribbean routes visit ports such as San Juan, St. Maarten, St. Thomas, and Half Moon Cay.

For guests looking for four- and five-day cruises, Carnival Sunrise provides a variety of options from PortMiami. Its itineraries focus on some of the most sought-after destinations in The Bahamas and the Caribbean, including Celebration Key and Half Moon Cay. Four-day cruises offer the ideal long weekend escape, typically departing on Thursdays and including stops at Half Moon Cay, Princess Cays, Celebration Key or Nassau. Additionally, the ship will sail various five- and one six-day itineraries, with select sailings featuring destinations like Grand Turk, Grand Cayman, and Ocho Rios.

Already open for reservations from Port Miami in 2026/27 are Carnival Celebration and Carnival Horizon. Carnival's newest and most innovative ship from Miami, Carnival Celebration, will offer a variety of seven-day cruises exploring both the Eastern and Western Caribbean, with a range of departure dates available through spring 2027. Guests can choose from a diverse selection of itineraries, including visits to Celebration Key and popular destinations like Nassau and Half Moon Cay, Grand Turk, Amber Cove, Cozumel, Mahogany Bay, St. Thomas and San Juan.

Carnival Horizon offerings include a special 13-day Carnival Journeys sailing from Barcelona to Miami on June 15, 2026, and features visits to Alicante and Malaga, Spain; Gibraltar; as well as a visit to Celebration Key after transiting the Atlantic Ocean. From PortMiami, the ship will sail mostly six- and eight-day cruises exploring vibrant destinations across the Caribbean. Six-day Western Caribbean itineraries, departing on Sundays, include stops at Celebration Key, Grand Cayman, Montego Bay or Ocho Rios. Eight-day Southern Caribbean options, departing on Saturdays, feature stops in Aruba, Curaçao, and either Bonaire, Amber Cove, or Celebration Key.

ABOUT CARNIVAL CRUISE LINE

Carnival Cruise Line, part of Carnival Corporation & plc (NYSE/LSE: CCL; NYSE: CUK), is the first cruise line to sail over 100 million guests and is proud to be known as America's Cruise Line, for carrying more Americans and serving more U.S. homeports than any other. Since its founding in 1972, Carnival has continually revolutionized the cruise industry and popularized the cruise vacation as an affordable and fun travel option. Carnival operates from 14 U.S. and two Australian homeports, as well as seasonally from Europe and employs more than 48,000 team members representing 120 nationalities.

Carnival's fleet of 27 ships reflects an exciting period of growth that continues with the addition of seven ships through 2033: two ships joining in February 2025 when P&O Cruises Australia integrates into Carnival; a fourth and fifth Excel class ship scheduled for 2027 and 2028 respectively; followed by three additional new ships from an innovative new class currently under development. Carnival's next new guest offering will be the all-new exclusive destination, Celebration Key, set to debut on Grand Bahama next summer.
